MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST*JUNE 6, 2010*REFLECTIONS*Good News!*June 6

Everything comes together in the Eucharist.

Abraham, our father in faith, is the root where God's promise and covenant begin. He is blessed by Melchizedek, a priest of God long before the Law is revealed. From the beginning, he brings bread and wine.

In Leviticus, God gives Moses rituals for various sacrifices: burnt offerings, grain offerings, guilt offerings, sin offerings, thanks offerings. The priests ate the slaughtered sin offering.

In the Exodus, the Passover meal connects God's liberation of slaves and the blood of a lamb. On their desert journey, the gift of bread feeds these same people when they're desperate.

When Mary says, "May it be done to me according to your word," every heart that has said yes to God, that has moved from perplexity to trust, finds its home.

Saint Paul recounts what was already a tradition when he became an apostle: "that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread. In the same way also the cup"—the cup that is the New Covenant in Christ's blood.

The blood Christ gave in death the next afternoon is forever connected to us when we come to his table.

With Christ's resurrection, the preaching of his followers explodes with titles for Jesus. As Messiah, as Word, as Lamb, as Priest, Prophet, and King, as Savior, as Son of Man, Son of David, and Son of God, as Bread of Life, as Alpha and Omega—everything comes together in Jesus Christ.

And still we have just started. The Church—the Body of Christ—lives because we come regularly to this table where Christ gives himself. We will continue to grow until this feast is completed at the heavenly banquet—the marriage supper of the Lamb. What we've just begun to recognize here, we'll see there fully.
